November News

It's November already, and now is the time to start mentioning Christmas. After all, if you're thinking of some advent reading, it's almost time to start. Here are some suggestions from us, great for reading alone or as a church.

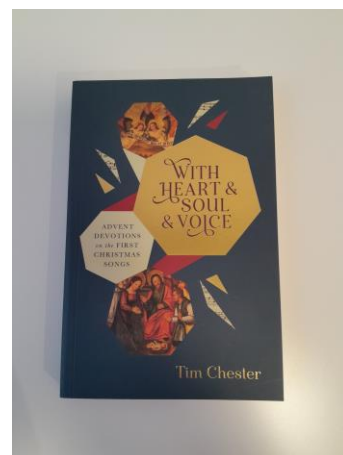

Journey With Me Through Christmas - £12.99

Catherine Campbell shares 25 very readable but thought-provoking advent devotions. There is a mix of biblical retellings and personal anecdotes, all pointing to the true joy of the Christmas story, and finishing with a reflection, a response, and a short prayer.

With Heart & Soul & Voice - £8.99

Tim Chester guides us through advent with 24 devotions on the songs of Mary, Zechariah, the angels, and Simeon. The bible text is printed along with the well-known words of the prayer book, then the passage is unpacked. Each devotion finishes with a quotation, a prayer, or the words of a carol.

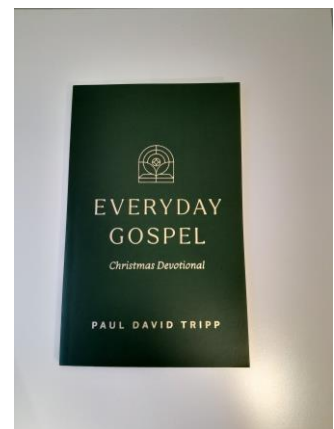

Good Tidings of Great Joy - £10.50

This is a beautiful collection of 38 meditations on Christ's incarnation from C.H. Spurgeon. They will fill your mind and touch your heart, pointing beyond the Christmas story to the second advent, and rejoicing in the grace of God.

Everyday Gospel Christmas Devotional - £5.99

In 25 brief devotions, Paul David Tripp traces the entire bible narrative from Genesis to Revelation. He shows how the incarnation of Jesus is central to the entire story of God's great love. Each reading ends with a question to reflect on and a short prayer.

This is just a selection of what we have available. If you are interested in buying multiple copies of any advent devotional books, to read as a group or as a congregation, please do get in touch. We'll find you the best deal we can.

Blessings,

Malcolm and Miriam
