National Day of Prayer 2026 Guide To Resources

The 2026 National Day of Prayer takes place on Wednesday 18th November.

This year we have the following resources to help you lead a time of prayer in your congregations:

- PowerPoint presentation (attached) with prayer points relating to each area.
- Prayer points in PDF format (attached).
- Online lunchtime prayer meeting to pray with Christians across the nation (details below)

These prayer points include additional contextual information to help inform prayer. Please feel free to use, adapt, shorten, or expand them as appropriate for your own setting and context.

Online Prayer Meeting: Wednesday 18th November
Everyone is invited to join a central prayer time led by Free Church Moderator Rev Calum Iain Macleod on Wednesday, 18th November at 12.30 pm. There will be a time of devotion followed by a time of corporate prayer. Please note, there are unlimited spaces on the online Teams call, so do join us to pray!

Microsoft details are below and can be shared with your congregations:
